

	Course Requirements	Career Goals and Academic Focus
		Research &amp; Analysis	Public Policy/ Law/ Criminology	Family/ Social Work/Public Policy	Business	Liberal Education Degree	Academic Sociology	Development (International or Domestic)
Occupational, Community, and Family Goals		Data analysis and information technology, typically non profits, federal or state-level government agencies, or companies that contract with government agencies	Pre-Law, law enforcement (FBI, Homeland Security, local law enforcement), state-level social welfare agencies, state and international security	Family and community work, pre-Social Work (MSW), pre-Law (specifically family law), state-level social welfare agencies, public policy, non-profit work	Business, MBA, MPA, Organizational Behavior, Human Resource Management	Any occupation which requires a Bachelor's Degree, more specifically: Real Estate, Financial Planning, Mortgage Broker, Retail Sales, and federal and state-level government agencies	Sociology as a profession, prepares students for advanced degrees in Sociology, as well as Public Policy, Political Science, Social Work, Education Policy, etc.	Program evaluation for NGOs, government agencies, development agencies
Recommended minor		Statistics or Mathematics	Political Science, Philosophy or English	Psychology, MFHD, History, or Women Studies	Business, Economics, or Communications	Business, Political Science, or Economics	Any of the social sciences, Philosophy, or Statistics	International Development, any foreign language or Nonprofit Management
Foundational Courses	111 or 112	111 or 112	112	112	111	111 or 112	111 or 112	111 or 112
	300	300	300	300	300	300	300	300
	Stats 221	221	221	221	221	221	221	221
	307	307	307	307	307	307	307	307
	350	350	350	350	350	350	350	350
Writing	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312	Eng 312
Theory	310	310	310	310	310	310	310	310
	311	311	311	311	311	311	311	311
Inequality	322, 323, 367	322	322	322	323	322	322	322 or 367
Advanced Methods	404 or 405	404 & 405 (one as an elective)	405	404 & 405 (one as an elective)	405	404 or 405	404 & 405 (one as an elective)	404 & 405 (one as an elective)
Select courses to emphasize substantive areas		Focus coursework on methodology courses with less emphasis on substantive areas	Understanding Modern Society, Deviance and Social Control, the State	Family, Modern Institutions, Social change, Political sociology	Complex Organizations & Work and Occupations	Understanding Modern Society, Political and Economic Institutions, Urban communities	Select a variety of courses to become familiar with the different substantive areas of sociology	Focus on courses related to development

	Course Requirements	Career Goals and Academic Focus
		Research &amp; Analysis	Public Policy/ Law/ Criminology	Family/ Social Work/Public Policy	Business	Liberal Education Degree	Academic Sociology	Development (International or Domestic)
Required Senior (Capstone) Courses—select two	420, 421, 422, 424, 425, 426, 429, 450, 460, 470, 481	Select among any senior capstone courses	Select among: 420 424 481	Select among: 424 429 450 460	420 426	Select among: 420 424 425 470	Select among any senior capstone courses; consider taking more than two capstone courses	429 Select among: 420 421 422 425
Electives
• Substantive courses	318, 322, 323, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 335, 345, 360, 365, 367, 370, 380, 383, 389, 390R	Select courses focused on major institutional arrangements in society (education, family, medical sociology, world populations) 326 360 329	Select courses focused on class inequality, race, education, crime and deviance 323 326 380	Focus on race, gender, adolescence, sociology of the family, medical sociology, and aging 318 323 329 360 365 367 383	Focus on class inequality, race, gender, and urban life 322 367 370	Focus on understanding the institutional arrangements of modern society 325 326 327 328 329 330 370	Focus on selected substantive areas of sociology: 325 326 327 328 329 330 370	301 Select courses focusing on inequality, development 322 330 340 345 WS 222
• Senior (Capstone) Courses	420, 421, 422, 424, 425, 426, 429, 450, 460, 470, 481	Students may take additional capstone courses as program allows	Students may take additional capstone courses as program allows	Additional capstone courses highly recommended	Students may take additional capstone courses as program allows	Students may take additional capstone courses as program allows	Additional capstone courses highly recommended	Any of the above recommended capstone courses
• Internship/ Directed Research	399R or 497R	497R	399R	399R or 497R	399R	399R	497R	399R (domestic or international internship)